Tasting Notes: Showing herbal and floral qualities, this wine poses aromas of white flowers, lemongrass, and guava. The bright nature of this wine is evident in the acidity found through the palate. Refreshing taste of apricot and honey on the mid-palate. Herbal qualities continue to the finish with a note of vanilla.

96 points Jeb Dunnuck:

"White flowers, white peach, toasted brioche, honeysuckle, and a kiss of chalk all emerge from the 2021 Chardonnay Peake Ranch Vineyard, a medium to full-bodied, pure, incredibly well-balanced Chardonnay. It has a touch more purity, precision, and length compared to the Santa Barbara County Chardonnay and should be longer lived as well."

94 points Vinous:

"The 2021 Chardonnay Peake Ranch Vineyard is a rich, heady and explosive wine endowed with tons of savory and mineral complexity to play off a core of citrus fruit. Lemon confit, chamomile, dried flowers, menthol and a kick of spice all meld together in this potent, phenolic Chardonnay."
